

Internship with the Yes for Homes Campaign

Available: September 1 – November 4

Summary: The GOTV Intern will assist with all activities related to the planning and implementation of our GOTV phone banks/field work.

Reports to: Field Coordinator

Hours: 8-15 hours per week. Flexible scheduling available, however evening hours (5:00-8:00pm) are preferred. Weekday and weekend availability.

Responsibilities:

- * Make volunteer recruitment calls.
- * Schedule volunteers shifts.
- * Make volunteer reminder calls.
- * Orient and supervise GOTV volunteers.
- * Help prepare materials for phone banks.
- * Help publicize phone banks through flyers, community calendars in newspapers, allied organizations.
- * New media outreach (Facebook, YouTube, blogs, etc).
- * Assist Field Coordinator with other GOTV/election related duties as needed.

Qualifications:

- * Excellent verbal communication skills.
- * Willingness to make a lot of phone calls to volunteers, and allies.
- * Strong commitment to a affordable housing.
- * Good computer skills.
- * Outgoing personality and willingness to work with volunteers.

Compensation:

This position is unpaid. Benefits include:

- * Professional experience working in fast-paced campaign environment
- * Opportunity to learn about ballot issues and city level government
- * Professional experience in Get Out the Vote (GOTV) campaigns
- * Connect to Seattle housing community

To Apply:

Please email a resume and cover letter to:

Tera Bianchi

Campaign Manger

tera@yesforhomes.org