Directions

- 1 Pick up your file from the Undergraduate Advising Center in Mary Gates Hall. If you have declared another major, get a copy of your file from that department. We must have a copy of transcripts and UW transfer evaluation forms for every college you have attended (these should be in your academic file).
- 2 Sign up for an appointment with an adviser in the appointment book in Smith 215. When we meet, we will go over your application, review your remaining requirements, and add you to the major if you meet all prerequisites.
- 3 The Political Science email list provides important deadlines plus information about courses, internships, graduation and careers. Check here to be added.
