

Kaplan/Levi Undergraduate Grant to Promote Civic Engagement

Political Science Department

Application Deadline: Tuesday, January 31, 2012

The Department of Political Science is pleased to announce the creation of the Kaplan/Levi Undergraduate Grant to Promote Civic Engagement. The grant provides financial support to students who seek through civic engagement to address issues of public concern. The grant should be used to cover expenses related to the project. The $500 award can be used in spring or summer quarter of 2012. The recipient(s) will be announced in mid-February.

This grant was created through the generosity of Robert D. Kaplan, Distinguished Alumnus of the UW Department of Political Science, and Margaret Levi, Jere L. Bacharach Professor of International Studies in the UW Department of Political Science.

If you are an undergraduate student in good standing and are interested in making the world a better place through civic engagement, please consider applying for this grant.

To apply, please submit the following materials.

1. Project proposal of about 500 words, including your name, your student number, the project you propose and the goals the grant will help you achieve.
2. Project timeline and budget describing how you will use the funds
3. Resume, including current address and contact information
4. Unofficial UW Transcript
5. Names of two faculty and/or TAs who are familiar with your work
