

JP Anderson (He/Him)
101 Gowen Hall, Box 353530
Seattle, WA 98195
Phone: 206.458.9391
Email: jpha@u.washington.edu

---

CURRENT ACADEMIC EMPLOYMENT

---

University of Washington

Academic-Student Employee, Department of Political Science. 2013-Present
Adjunct Instructor, Seattle University. 2018-Present

---

EDUCATION

---

University of Washington

Doctoral Candidate, Political Science. 2017.

- Expected to achieve Ph.D. in June 2020
- Sub Fields: American Politics, Public Law, Political Theory
- Achieved “distinction” on comprehensive exams
- Areas of Research: Race and the Law, Prisons and Punishment, Restorative Justice
- Dissertation Title: Unleashed: Crime, State Violence, and Racial Dominance

M.A., Political Science. 2015.

- MA thesis Title: Institutionalized Natality? Foucault, Arendt, and the Political Implications of Restorative Justice Theory

B.A., Law, Societies, and Justice. 2013

- BAVA Scholar 2012-2013
- Senior year internship with King County Reentry Services

Seattle Central College

A.A., 2011

- Participated in interdisciplinary Coordinated Studies Program

---

PUBLICATIONS and WORKING PAPERS

---

Walker, Hannah; Thorpe, Rebecca; Christensen, Emily; Anderson, JP. “The Hidden Subsidies of Rural Prisons: Race, Space and the Politics of Cumulative Disadvantage.” Punishment & Society 2016

Anderson, JP. “Unleashed: Cross-National Comparisons of Ethno-Racial Disproportionality in Prisons”. Under review at Political Research Quarterly 2019

---

TEACHING

---

Seattle University

Adjunct Instructor: Power, People, and Society (Political Theory), 2018
Adjunct Instructor: Jazz as Political Theory (Political Theory), 2018

University of Washington (2 year avg. Adjusted Combined Median (ACM) Evaluation Score: 4.85)

---

Excellence in Teaching Award Nominee 2018 (University Wide)

---

Graduate Instructor: Crime, Politics, and Justice (LSJ), 2018, 2019 (ACM: 4.9)
Graduate Instructor: Ethics in Law and Justice (LSJ), 2018, 2019 (ACM: 4.8/4.9)
Graduate Instructor: Drugs in Society (LSJ), 2019 (ACM: 4.9)
Graduate Instructor: Concepts of Power (Political Theory), 2017 (ACM 4.8)
Undergraduate Instructor: Transfer Student Interest Group (University Community), 2013
Teaching Assistant: Introduction to American Politics, 2014, 2015
Teaching Assistant: Introduction to Law, Societies, and Justice, 2016, 2017, 2018
Teaching Assistant: Introduction to Political Theory, 2014, 2015, 2016
Teaching Assistant: Communication and Mass Media, 2015
Teaching Assistant: Drugs in Society, 2014
Teaching Assistant: Crime, Politics, and Justice, 2017
Teaching Assistant: International Courts and Justice, 2013
Teaching Assistant: Women's Rights as Human Rights, 2016
Teaching Assistant: International Human Rights, 2013

RESEARCH AND CONSULTING EXPERIENCE

---

Consulting

World Affairs Council, 2016 - present. Provided briefings on US federalism to foreign dignitaries, including the Sudanese Minister of Higher Education and the Indonesian Minister of Digital Economy.

Reference: Jeremy Sinensky, 206.441.5910 ext. 311

Research

Polis Solutions and the US Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Assistance, Contract Researcher, 2016. Researched Neighborhood-based Leadership Development Efforts.

Contact: Alissa Huntoon (USDOJ-BJA) 202.305.1661

Research Assistant to Rebecca Thorpe, Ph.D., University of Washington, 2014, 2015, 2017.

Researched US census data, state budgets, prisons, and transportation infrastructure.

King County Reentry Services, Restorative Justice research Intern, 2013. Developed Restorative Justice initiative for implementation in King County.

INVITED PRESENTATIONS AND CONFERENCES

---

Western Political Science Association Meeting, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018

Midwestern Political Science Association Meeting, 2016

Law and Society Association Annual Meeting, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019

Corrections Education and Reentry Conference (WA), 2014

ADDITIONAL WORK EXPERIENCE

---

Downtown Emergency Service Center (DESC), Seattle, WA

Shelter Counselor, Assistant to Shelter Director

Provided direct services to homeless and formerly homeless adults in shelter and residential sites. Performed intakes and evaluations of new shelter clients. Assisted shelter director in administrative tasks. Supervised shelter staff. Performed “on-the-block” safety and outreach with Safety Patrol. 2003-2008

Creative Living Services, Seattle, WA

Residential Counselor

Provided residential support services to adults with developmental and physical disabilities. Dispensed medications and provided wound care. Conducted meal and activity planning and occupational support. 2001-2003

Maxim Healthcare, Seattle, WA

Case Aid

One on one residential support to children living in residential care facilities such as Seattle Children’s Home. Focused on transitions and safety within the milieu. 2002-2003

REFERENCES

---

Rebecca Thorpe

University of Washington, Seattle
bthorpe@uw.edu

Michael McCann

University of Washington, Seattle
mwmccann@uw.edu

Jack “Chip” Turner III

University of Washington, Seattle
jturner3@uw.edu