POL S 556 A: AMERICAN POLITICAL DEVELOPMENT

- Autumn 2016

Meeting Time: T 1:30pm - 4:20pm

Location: SMI 109
SLN: 20182

Instructor: Megan Ming Francis

Catalog Description:
Examination of leading works in, and theories of, American political development. Topics include the development approach itself; critical junctures in U.S. political history; key changes in institutions, the American state, the representation of interests and party politics; and the relevance of development studies to current politics.

Credits: 5.0
Status: Active
Last updated: January 10, 2018 - 9:28pm