WEEK OF OCTOBER 28, 2019

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE BULLETIN, OCTOBER 28, 2019

FACULTY AND GRADUATE STUDENTS PAPERS, PUBLICATIONS AND ACTIVITIES:

What I Did on My Summer Vacation, Part 3: Tony Gill got busy writing some short pieces over at the American Institute for Economic research dealing with the Business Roundtable and capitalism, billionaires and a call for charity, and the social justice of tiered-seating in stadiums.

Tony Gill was an invited faculty participant in Hillsdale College's Free Market Forum, held in Philadelphia on October 11 and 12. He managed to not eat any cookies that were placed in front of him during snack time. One must celebrate the small victories in life.

Dennis Young is presenting his paper "Detained but Not Powerless: Immigrant Detention, Resistance, and the Possibilities of Law" at the UT Austin Public Law Conference on Friday, October 24, 2019.
