POLISCI WRITING CENTER

The goal of the Writing Center is to assist undergraduates with their Political Science writing assignments at any point in the creative process, from first thought to final draft. The center is staffed by highly capable undergraduate tutors ready to help students organize and present their ideas clearly and effectively.

To learn more, go to the Writing Center website.

The Writing Center is open from the 2nd week of each quarter through the third day of final exam week. It is closed during quarter breaks.
