

Afro-Peruvian Dance

Dance 231 A sln 22224

*Instructor: Lalo Izquierdo

2 credits (VLPA) – meets Tuesday / Thursday 4:30-6:00PM – Meany Hall Studio 266

This course will include theoretical and practical knowledge which will allow students to express, communicate, practice and pass on Afroperuvian dance. The course will introduce students to the etymology of the name, geographical area where the dance is practiced, historical origins of the dance, and specific dance steps. No prior experience in dance required.

*Lalo Izquierdo is one of the founding members of the internationally acclaimed "Peru Negro," Dance Company of Lima, Peru. Lalo plays the cajón (box), sings, and dances. He is a living legend of the Afro-Peruvian arts.

Contact danceadv@uw.edu with any questions regarding the course.