

David J. Olson Undergraduate Research Grant

Political Science Department

Application Deadline: Tuesday, January 31, 2012

The Department of Political Science is pleased to announce the creation of the David J. Olson Undergraduate Research Grant for expenses related to undergraduate research on state, regional or city politics or labor politics. The $500 award can be used in spring or summer quarter of 2012. The recipient will be announced in mid-February. The grant recipient will need to register for Pol S 499 (Independent Research) in spring or summer of 2012.

This grant was created to honor David J. Olson, Professor Emeritus and former Chair of Political Science, University of Washington.

If you are an undergraduate student in good standing, and are interested in pursuing research in one of these areas, please consider applying for this grant.

To apply, please submit the following materials:

1. Project proposal of about 500 words, including your name, your student number, the project you propose and the goals the grant will help you achieve.
2. Project timeline and budget describing how you will use the funds
3. Resume, including current address and contact information
4. Unofficial UW Transcript
5. Names of two faculty and/or TAs who are familiar with your work
